Dear Harold,

I am trudging through the paper version of Case Closed, and, in addition to my previous comment to you about it, have found the following:

- He still calls John Pic a "stepbrother of Oswald rather than "half brother";
- In a footnote, he acknowledges that failure analysis did their work for ABA for prosecution and defense.

We have several copies at B. Dalton. Would you like me to send you one?

I found your latest mailing quite interesting, especially the clip on the Adamses. A while back I read Descent from Glory, very well done. As a result I visited the St. Gaudens statue/monument in Rock Creek Cemetery over Clover's grave (and Henry's). She, as you might remember, was a suicide victim.

Could you please date + sign the enclosed book plate for my good friend Dave Hammond, in Arizona? A self addressed, stamped envelope is enclosed for him on it. Thanks. Sincerely, Dave Reitz
